

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
District of New Jersey

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CASE NUMBER 1:16-CR-00190-NLH-1

ZACKARY MCFERREN

Defendant.

JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE
(For Revocation of Supervised Release)
(For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987)

The defendant, ZACKARY MCFERREN, was represented by BRENDEN SHUR, ESQ.

Upon Government's motion, Violation Numbers 2 and 4 of the Second Amended Petition and Violation 2 of the Amended Petition and Original Petition have been Dismissed.

The defendant admitted Guilt to Violation Numbers 1 and 3 as stated on the Second Amended Violation Petition. Accordingly, the court has adjudicated that the defendant is guilty of the following violations:

Violation Number	Nature of Violation
1	Committed another crime
3	Examination by US Probation Office computer monitoring

As pronounced on April 16, 2021, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 7 of this judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

It is ordered that the defendant must notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs and special assessments imposed by this judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant must notify the court and United States attorney of any material change in economic circumstances. Unless modified by this judgment, all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments previously imposed in the judgment filed on 10/17/2016 remain in full force and effect, if not already paid.

Signed this 23rd day of April, 2021.

s/ Noel L. Hillman
Hon. Noel L. Hillman
U.S. District Judge

Defendant: ZACKARY MCFERREN

IMPRISONMENT

The Court finds upon the evidence presented that you, Zachary McFerren, are in violation of the conditions of supervised release imposed by this Court on October 17, 2016. It is ordered and adjudged that the previously imposed terms of supervised release are revoked and the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 24 months. Specifically, you are sentenced to a term of 24 months in custody for violating the terms of supervised release attached to Count 1 of the underlying Indictment. You are also sentenced to a term of 24 months in custody for violating the terms of supervised release attached to Count 2 of the underlying Indictment. All terms of imprisonment are to run concurrent to each other to produce a total aggregate term of 24 months and consecutively to the 33 month sentence imposed in Crim. No.: 20-53, as well as to run consecutive to any previous state or federal sentence or such sentences to be imposed in the future.

The Court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons: that the Bureau of Prisons designate the BOP facility closest to defendant's home address that offers a sex offense specific treatment program.

The defendant will remain in custody pending service of sentence.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of 10 years. This will consist of a reimposed term of supervised release of 10 years on Count 1. You will also be placed on a reimposed term of supervised release of 3 years on Count 2. All terms of supervised release are to run concurrent to each other.

Within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons, you must report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which you are released.

While on supervised release, you must not commit another federal, state, or local crime, must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and must comply with the mandatory and standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as set forth below.

You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervised release and at least two tests thereafter as determined by the probation officer. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

At the commencement of supervision, you must register with the state sex offender registration agency in the State of New Jersey or any state where you reside or are employed, carry on a vocation, or are a student, as directed by the U.S. Probation Office.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it is a condition of supervised release that you pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

You must comply with the following special conditions:

ALCOHOL/DRUG TESTING AND TREATMENT

You must refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and the use of alcohol, and must submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you must submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You must abide by the rules of any program and must remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You must alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.

DENIAL OF COMPUTER

You must not possess, procure, purchase, or otherwise obtain access to any form of computer network, bulletin board, internet, or exchange format involving computers unless specifically approved by the U.S. Probation Office. Any dispute as to the applicability of this condition will be decided by the Court.

(In accordance with Third Circuit case law, this condition shall only be recommended for offenses that involve the following statutes: 18 §§ 2241, 2242, 2243(a) & (b), 2244, 2421, 2422, 2423, 2325, 2251, 2260(b), 2251(a), 2252(A)(g), 2252(B) & (C), 1591, 1460, 1462, 1463, 1465, 1470, and 8 § 1328).

COMPUTER MONITORING

You must submit to an initial inspection by the U.S. Probation Office, and to any unannounced examinations during supervision, of your computer equipment. This includes, but is not limited to, personal computers, personal digital assistants, entertainment consoles, cellular telephones, and/or any electronic media device which is owned or accessed by you. You must allow manual searches of these devices and the installation on your computer of any hardware or software systems which monitor computer use. You must pay the cost of the computer monitoring program. You may use a computer in connection with employment if approved by the U.S. Probation Office, provided you notify your employer of the nature of your conviction and any computer related restrictions that are imposed on you. The U.S. Probation Office will confirm your compliance with this notification requirement.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

Upon request, you must provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of your financial records, including commingled income, expenses, assets and liabilities, to include yearly income tax returns. With the exception of the financial accounts reported and noted within the presentence report, you are prohibited from maintaining and/or opening any additional individual and/or joint checking, savings, or other financial accounts, for either personal or business purposes, without the knowledge and approval of the U.S. Probation Office. You must cooperate with the U.S. Probation Officer in the investigation of your financial dealings and must provide truthful monthly statements of your income. You must cooperate in the signing of any authorization to release information forms permitting the U.S. Probation Office access to your financial records.

MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT

You must undergo treatment in a mental health program approved by the U.S. Probation Office until discharged by the Court. As necessary, said treatment may also encompass treatment for gambling, domestic violence and/or anger management, or sex offense-specific treatment, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office, until discharged by the Court. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.

RESTRICTED CONTACT WITH MINORS

With the exception of brief, unanticipated and incidental contacts, you must not associate with children under the age of 18, except for family members or children in the presence of an adult who has been approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. You must not obtain employment or perform volunteer work which includes, as part of its job/work description, contact with minor children, without the expressed approval of the U.S. Probation Office. You must not maintain, within your residence or within any outside establishment within your control or custody, a collection of digital images or videos, films, slides, pictures, tapes, videotapes or other form of pictorial representation whose subject matter involves minor children of either sex and can be deemed to be pornographic. The U.S. Probation Office will have the right of reasonable search of your person and residence, or any other establishment within your custody or control, and will, if necessary, request the assistance of other law enforcement personnel to enforce the provisions of this special condition.

NEW DEBT RESTRICTIONS

You are prohibited from incurring any new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit, or incurring any new monetary loan, obligation, or debt, by whatever name known, without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office. You must not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine and/or restitution obligation or otherwise has the expressed approval of the Court.

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION

You must submit to an initial polygraph examination and subsequent maintenance testing, at intervals to be determined by the U.S. Probation Office, to assist in treatment, planning, and case monitoring. You will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount to be determined by the U.S. Probation Office, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.

CONSENT TO SEARCH

You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

LIFE SKILLS/EDUCATION

As directed by the U.S. Probation Office, you must participate in and complete any educational, vocational, cognitive or any other enrichment programs offered by the U.S. Probation Office or any outside agency or establishment while under supervision.

SEX OFFENSE – SPECIFIC ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT

You must participate in a sex offense-specific assessment and treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. You must remain in that program until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the Court or the U.S. Probation Office. You shall pay the cost of assessment and/or treatment as directed by the Probation Office.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have fulltime employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e.. anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12) If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

13) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

For Official Use Only --- U.S. Probation Office

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the Court may (1) revoke supervision or (2) extend the term of supervision and/or modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions, and have been provided a copy of them.

You shall carry out all rules, in addition to the above, as prescribed by the Chief U.S. Probation Officer, or any of his associate Probation Officers.
